

Disarm yourself

1. You who have come so far still have your ma-ney fears. You're
 2. You must know by now that Peace jumps not the wall that's 3. You who have come this far know what must be said. You're called to lay them down, the time are grow-ing near, when you can built to keep it out. Yes, this wall must fall. It can-not called to say it now, no long-er will you dread to call the throw down de-fen-ses and shine in the light of fall when your heart is sur-round-ed by man-y na-tions to their re-pen-tence and in God to put their day; and you can see that your pro-tec-tion de-fear. O-pen it up, let hate fall down, and the trust. Tear down de-fen-ses, let love shine in, let the pende on a brand new way. Dis-arm your-self, call you soon will hear.

 wea-pons of war turn to rust.

and put on the ar-mor of God. Dis-arm your-self. Dis-arm your-self, and put on the ar-mor of God. Dis-arm your-self.

Free your-self from these bonds. Know where your fu-ture be-longs.