

Isaiah 55

D A Bm D
Ho, everyone who thirsts come to the waters
Bm D A D
and he who has no money come, buy and eat
D A Bm D
Come, buy wine and milk without money, without price
Bm D A D
Come to the waters come, buy and eat.

G D A D
Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread?
G D C A
Why do you give your labor for what doesn't satisfy?

D A Bm D
Harken unto me and eat what is good
Bm D A D
My feast brings you delight so, come unto me.

C A
Give to me your ear that your soul may live.
C A
Listen to me and you shall live
G A Bm C D
and I will make with you an everlasting covenant.

Bm A Bm A
Behold, like David you're my witness. Behold, you shall call the nations.
Bm A Bm A
Behold, they shall come to you Because of the Lord, your God,
C G A
for He has glorified you.

D A Bm D
(So) Seek the Lord while He may be found
Bm D A D
Call upon Him while He is near.

D A Bm D
The Lord in mercy waits for those with wicked thots' and ways to return unto him Come, He will forgive.
Bm D A D

G D A D
My thoughts & ways are not yours, says the Lord.
G D C A
They're higher than the heavens above you but call, while I am near.

D A Bm D
For as the rain and snow come down from heaven

Bm D A D
and do not return, but water the earth

D A Bm D
Making it bring forth & sprout where it lands

Bm D A D
giving seed the sower and bread the hungry.

C A
So shall the word gone forth from my mouth

C A
it shall not return to me empty

C A
but everything that is within my will

C A
shall be accomplished in you.

Bm A Bm A
For you shall go out in joy and be led forth in peace

Bm A Bm A
the mountains and the hills before you shall break into singing

D A G A D...A...G...A
and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

D A G
Instead of the thorn in the wilderness

A D A...G...A D...A...G...A
there will be pine trees to give you shade.

D A G A
Instead of the briars there shall be the sweet smell

D A...G...A D...A...G...A
of the myrtle bush with its sweet fruit.

D A G A D...A...G...A
And all this shall be to the Lord a sign,

D A G A D...A...G
an everlasting sign which shall not be cut off;

A D...A...G...A
it shall not be cut off. . . (repeat this line 2 more times)

D A Bm D Bm D A D
So, seek the Lord while He may be found. Call upon Him while He is near.

D A Bm D
Ho, everyone who thirsts come to the waters

Bm D A D...A...Bm...G..A..D
Come to the waters and go out with JOY. . . .
