

It'll be all right

1. When my old - est daugh - ter was a ba - by strug - gling to get back to sleep at
 2. Head - ing tow'rd the end - ing of a mar - riage, all my faults and fears out in plain
 3. Night - mares come in dark - ness and in day - light, and our fears can lead to fight or 4. There with - in the last book of the Bi - ble, God, a - mid the ter - ror, comes to night, I'd hold her in my arms and I'd whis - per, sight, I can - not see to - mor - row and I won - der flight, where's the still, small voice that comes to whis - per, light a can - dle in the dark, and then to whis - per,

"Shh, ev - 'ry - thing will be all right. It' ll be all right, it' ll be all will ev - 'ry - thing come out all right? Will it come out right? Will it come out
 "Shh, ev - 'ry - thing will be all right. It' ll be all right, it' ll be all
 "Shh, ev - 'ry - thing will be all right. It' ll be all right, it' ll be all right. Ev - 'ry - thing is gon - na be all right." The les - sons that I learn'd, as a right? Lord, will ev - 'ry - thing come out all right: the les - sons that I've learn'd and mis - right. Ev - 'ry - thing is gon - na be all right." The les - sons that we learn in the right. Ev - 'ry - thing is gon - na be all right." The les - sons that we learn when at first - time fa - ther, turn'd on the faith that ev - 'ry - thing will be all right. What takes from which I've turn'd on the faith that ev - 'ry - thing will be all right?

 midst of con - flict turn on the faith that ev - 'ry - thing will be all right. last we stand to turn on the faith that ev - 'ry - thing will be all right.

do our fears have to teach us when we face them and do not turn a - way? Can we find a path thru the strug - gle, and the cour - age to walk it, come what may?