

Wilderness Travelers

1. Leav - ing be - hind what we've come to con - si - der our Ties that feel bro - ken in - cline us to think we're a - 2. Aim - ing our en - er - gies in - to to - mor - row's de - Seek - ing di - rec - tion, too of - ten we mis - un - der - 3. The time is here when the past and the fu - ture are Wild - er - ness trav - 'lers, our sto - ry has on - ly be - home,

 lone.
 mands.
 stand,
 one.
 gun.
 peo - ple we've lov'd and shared all of our Look - ing a - head, tho', we see life is calls for a vi - sion of what we are with - out dis - cern - ment from oth - ers we All us to - geth - er are giv - en the Now is the mo - ment so let us choose hopes and our dreams.

 not what it seems.....for each of us comes with an will - ing to do. each of us sees such a nev - er get through.....for gift of Sha - lom.
 this as our home.....for in 'trest - ing sto - ry to tell to new friends on the way and diff - rent ho - ri - zon that chang - es our view of to - day. so I will lis - ten to you, for God's Spi - rit us - es your voice; re - veal - ing paths to pur - sue, in this we may sing and re - joice.