A place in the choir

Refrain: All God's critters got a place in the choir, some sing low, some sing higher,
some sing out loud on the telephone wire,
and some just clap their hand, or paws,
or anything they got now.

Listen to the bass, it's the one on the bottom where the bullfrog croaks and the hippopotamus moans & groans with a big ta'do, and the old cow just goes "Moo." (Refrain)

The dogs and the cats they take up the middle while the honeybee hums and the cricket fiddles, the donkey brays and the pony neighs and the old coyote howls. (Refrain)

Listen to the top where the little birds sing on the melodies with the high notes ringing, The hoot owl hollers over ev'rything and the jaybird disagrees. (Refrain)

It's a simple song of living sung ev'rywhere by the ox and the fox and the grizzly bear, the grumpy alligator and the hawk above, the sly raccoon and the turtle dove. (Refrain)

Call to Worship

4 readers stand together at the top of the steps in the front of the sanctuary. They pass one microphone, each speaking their line with enthusiasm. To the song that follows, they lead the congregation in doing as the songs says, first holding each other's hand to verse 1 ("grab another hand"), then going out into the congregation to do the rest of the verses ("shake another hand," "raise another hand," hug another friend").

- 1 - It is time!
- 2 - It's time to rise and shine!
- 3 - It's time to get up and move!
- 4 - It's time to pay attention!
- 1 - It's time to wake up!
- 2 - It's time to pray forward!
- 3 - It's time to celebrate!
- 4 - It's time to praise God!
- 1 - Allelulia!
- 2 - Allelulia!
- 3 - Allelulia!
- 4 - Allelulia!

Grab another hand

(aka "A-la-la")

Grab another hand, grab a hand next to ya,

Grab another hand and sing this song.

Grab another hand, grab a hand next to ya,

Grab another hand and sing,.... sing along.

Al la,la,la,la,la,la,le lu ya Al la,la,la,la,le lu ya

Al la,la,la,la,la,la,le lu ya Al la,la,la,la,la,....le lu ya.

Opening Prayer

- 1 - With hands raised, we praise you, God.
- 2 - With hands clasped, we depend upon your promises as we make our own.
- 3 - With arms linked, we follow Jesus together, empowered by your Holy Spirit.
- 4 - Hugging one another, we are embraced by your love.
  - 1 - Lead us in worship.
  - 2 - Speak to us in scripture.
  - 3 - Bless this time.
  - 4 - In Jesus' name. Amen.

Psalm 112:1-4

Reader 1:

Psalm 112:1-4...

Listen.

Reader 2:

你们要赞美耶和华！

敬畏耶和华、

乐于遵行祂命令的人有福了！

Reader 1:

Shout praises to the Lord!

The Lord blesses everyone who worships him and gladly obeys his teachings.

Reader 2:

他的子孙在世上必兴盛，

正直人的后代必蒙福。

Reader 1:

Their descendants will have great power in the land,
because the Lord blesses
all who do right.

Reader 2:

他的家财丰厚，他的公义永存。

Reader 1:

They will get rich and prosper and will always be remembered for their fairness.

Reader 2:

黑暗中必有光照亮正直人
照亮有恩慈、好怜悯、行公义的人。

Reader 1:

They will be so kind and merciful and good,
that they will be a light in the dark for others who do the right thing.

The lord is my light

The Lord is my light, and my salvation.
Whom shall I fear? Whom shall I fear? (repeat both lines)
The Lord is my strength, the strength of my life,
Of whom, then, shall I be afraid? (repeat)

Psalms 112:5-9

- 1 - It is good to be merciful and generous.
- 2 - Those who are fair in their business will never be defeated.
- 3 - Good people will always be remembered.
- 4 - They won't be afraid of bad news;
1 - their hearts are steady because they trust the Lord.
2 - They are confident and will not be afraid;
3 - they will look down on their enemies.
4 - They give freely to the poor.
1 - The things they do are right and will continue forever.
2 - They will be given great honor.

(pause for 3 seconds, then go on)

- 3 - Good and generous people of God,
- 4 - we invite you to give as you are able. Ushers?

Hebrews 13: 1-8, 15-16

- 1 - See to it that love continues to run both ways in all your dealings with one another.
- 2 - Don't limit your hospitality to your friends. Some people who have welcomed strangers into their homes were actually opening their doors to God's messengers without realizing it.
- 3 - Keep standing up for those who are in detention, just as you would if you were locked up with them. Imagine yourselves in the shoes of those who are being harshly mistreated and work for them accordingly. Don't let out of sight mean out of mind!
- 4 - See to it that the vowed life of marriage is treated with the respect it deserves. Protect the sacredness of the sexual intimacy within vowed relationships. God will sort out those who drag sex into the mire of selfishness, dishonesty and betrayal.
- 1 - Keep the lust for money right out of your lives. Be satisfied with what you have, trusting in God's promise to never let you down or abandon you.
- 2 - We can say with confidence: "The Lord looks after me; I've got nothing to fear. What harm can anyone do me?"
- 3 - Remember your leaders through whom you heard God's message. Watch the way they live and note what comes of it. Model yourselves on their example of faith. Such examples don't go out of date, because Jesus Christ is the same now as he always was and always will be.

- 4 - Let us continue to offer the gift of praise to God through Christ. Keeping God's name on our lips is a real gift, but it is not the only gift that matters. Don't overlook the importance of sharing what you have and working for the good of others, because these too are gifts that delight God.

Flames of the Spirit songs

Pass it on

It only takes a spark to get a fire going.
And soon all those around can warm up in its glowing;
That's how it is with God's love;
Once you've experienced it,
you spread His love to everyone;
You want to pass it on.

Seek ye first

Seek ye first, the Kingdom of God & God's righteousness.
And all these things shall be added unto you.
Allelu, Allelujah.

'Tis a gift to be simple

'Tis a gift to be simple, 'Tis a gift to be free,
'Tis a gift to come down where we ought to be.
And when we find ourselves in the place just right,
'Twill be in the valley of love and delight.
When true simplicity is gained,
To bow and to bend, we shan't be ashamed.
To turn, turn, 'twill be our delight
'Till by turning, turning, we come 'round right.

Spirit of the living God

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me,
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.

Sanctuary

Lord please make me a sanctuary,
Pure and holy, tired and true,
And with thanksgiving, I'll be a living Sanctuary for you.

Pastoral Prayer

(spoken in the moment as the Spirit leads)

Luke 14:1, 7-14

(Beforehand, place several folding chairs hidden up front, ready to be used.)

<sup>1</sup> On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

Wait, let's try to visualize this Sabbath feast. Here is the head seat at the table. (set up a folding chair at the top of the steps) This is where the leader of the Pharisees sits. Hmm. I need a "leader of the Pharisees." Any volunteers? Great. Please sit in this most important seat. Let's add some more chairs. (place one folding chair on either side of the head, then add some down the steps, noting which might be more important as a place to sit.) Let's continue.

<sup>7</sup> When (Jesus) noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. <sup>8</sup> "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet,

I need so two more volunteers. You've been invited to this meal. (seat one next to the host, and the other in a chair down the steps)

"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; <sup>9</sup> and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,'

Oops! You (the one seated next to the host) need to move. Trade places with him/her (the other person, do so).

'Give this person your place,' (the host says) and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place.

How embarrassing! Okay, everyone but the head Pharisee, get up. Both of you sit in the seat furthest away from the host.

<sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.

Okay, host, invite them to come and sit beside you at the head of the table.

<sup>11</sup> For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup> He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. <sup>13</sup> But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. <sup>14</sup> And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Thank you for helping us visualize this story. Please help put these chairs back where they were.

Benediction

A week of camp ends,
but the fire remains within,
even for those of us
who were campers long ago.
Allow that flame,
the blaze of the Holy Spirit,
to kindle the candles on every table.
For every meal,
whether haphazard or planned,
whether few or many share it,
is a Love Feast.
The heavenly host is at the head of the table,
which is every table,
a foretaste of the Kingdom.
“Come, sit with me,” says the Lord.
Are you available this week for such a meal,
which can be every meal?
I hope so. Lord bless!
