Opening Prayer

by Becky Ullom Naugle

Gracious God, who values the wisdom of age, the energy of youth, and the steadiness in between, make Your presence known to us in our worship today. Make plain to us the gifts you've planted in the lives of our sisters and brothers of different generations. May your Holy Spirit draw us closer to each other and closer to you. Thank you for your invitation to abundant life as a community of disciples! Amen.

Call to Giving

by Dana & Karen Cassell

How do we know how to be church?

We know how to be church by learning from the wisdom of those who have gone before us.

And what did they do?

The scripture tells us that the people in the very first church

...were devoted

...were together

...gave

...met

...broke bread

...and they praised God!

May our giving this morning be an expression of our devotion and our praise.

Litany

by Becky Ullom Naugle

One: From those older than us, we learn many things – how to pray, how to love Jesus, how to make communion bread, and how to take care of one another.

All: Teaching God, generation after generation stands in awe of your work; each one tells stories of your mighty acts.

One: From those younger than us, we are reminded of many things – the need for laughter, the importance of play, insatiable curiosity, and almost boundless energy.

All: Creating God, generation after generation stands in awe of your work; each one tells stories of your mighty acts.

One: From those who are wise beyond their years and younger than they seem, we begin to understand more about faith - theirs and our own.

All: Ever-present God, generation after generation stands in awe of your work; each one tells stories of your mighty acts.

Pastoral Prayer

by Meghan Knight

Almighty God, thank you for these names that we have just mentioned. We lift them to you. Fill our hearts with love that we can comfort all these people that are hurting, and that we may be able to pray for them continuously. Thank you for our joys. Thank you for our youth. Thank you for all your blessings in life. We ask this in the name of your son Jesus Christ. Amen

Benediction

by Rachel & David Witkovsky

May the God of ages past, the God of this day, and the God of tomorrow, this One God of eternal love and guidance, bless you and keep you.

May God's love shine on you here in this place and be a light to your path as you go out into the world.

May God's people be awestruck by the movement of God in our lives and may we multiply God's love in our acts and deeds.

May we celebrate a faith that is as ancient as the stones around us and as relevant as the air we breathe.

Go in peace.
